All of the children did a fantastic job and all performances were brilliant

Weston primary school has registered to take part in the Royal Academy of Arts Young Artists Summer Show. The Young Artists' Summer Show is a free, open submission exhibition for young children aged 4-19 years studying in the UK. Any child can enter (reception to Year 6) if they wish.

If any children would like to take part, all they need to do is create a piece of artwork, hand it to Mr Manning and he will submit it. Each student can submit one artwork and there is no theme.

For more information about what it's about and how children can enter please visit <https://youngartists.royalacademy.org.uk/get-involved>

Prizes are awarded and the children's artwork may be chosen to be displayed within an online exhibition at the Royal Academy of Art.
